Or the "free trade" bugaboo, the New York Mercury justly says: "There is no question of free trade before the country. There has been none—except in Henry George's books—for a generation. There has never been a measure offered in Congress which contenudated an approach to free trade. No one knows this better than the Tribune—that mossyrown organ of monopoly and taxalion—yet it keeps on calling the Democracy a party of free trade when it knows that it falsifies the record. The people cheerfully pay a tax to support the government and only begrudge what they pay to support monopor udge what they pay to support monopo-se and private corporations. RENEWER,

It is a medicinal preparation, and, so the same time, an elegant and cleanly toilet article. Its action upon the scale is health-laid. It nourishes the glands which support the helr, and casses thin, dry hair to become thick, sort, and vilgorous. It restores the color of youth to locks which have become fulded with ago or disease; and relieves and cures fitching, caused by humors of the scale. Dr. George Gray, Nashun, N.
